IEIA FORUM 2012  Conservation and Efficiency – What Works!

Birmingham Botanical Gardens, Wednesday, October 10, 2012 8:30 AM – 2:30 PM
Hosted by the Interfaith Environmental Initiative of Alabama

8:30  Registration, Breakfast Snacks, Exhibits, Networking

9:00  Welcome – Fred Spicer – Executive Director, Birmingham Botanical Gardens

9:10  Introduction to the Day – IEIA, Collaboration That Works!
     Eleanor McKenzie DelBene, IEIA Convener

9:20  Effective Stewardship of Creation
     Rev. Leanne Pearce Reed, Pastor, Montevallo Presbyterian Church

9:40  Introductions around the Table
     Facilitated by Clarus Consulting Group, Cathy Wright, Principal

9:50  Energy in Alabama: Programs, Projects and Opportunities
     Kathy Hornsby, Energy Division of Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs / ADECA

10:20  Q & A and Focus Questions – facilitated by Clarus Consulting Group

10:40  Break for refreshments, exhibits, networking

10:53  Statewide Water Resources Planning – Cindy Lowry

11:00  Water-Energy Savings from a Utility Perspective
     Rebecca West, Deputy General Manager of Technical & Engineering Services, Spartanburg South Carolina Water

11:30  Q & A and Focus Questions – facilitated by Clarus Consulting Group

11:50  Lunch, exhibits, networking

12:40  What’s Working in Alabama
     Jonathan Handey, Eco Three; Greg and Debra Miller, Athens/Limestone County Habitat for Humanity; Lea Ann Macknally, Macknally Land Design

1:10  Q & A and Focus Questions – facilitated by Clarus Consulting Group

1:30  Youth in Action
     Aaron Traywick, University of Montevallo Environmental Club

1:50  Q & A and Focus Questions – facilitated by Clarus Consulting Group

2:10 - 2:30  Evaluation / feedback / wrap-up – Clarus and IEIA Convener